

RESEARCH POLICY

Research is the foundation of knowledge for development and part of NECG mission objectives.

Aim: To promote staff research / capacity building / Outreach / knowledge up gradation etc.,

Objectives:

- To provide Grant in Aid to allow a faculty to start research in his area of interest or chosen field.
- To allow faculty to test /try /realize their ideas
- To support inter departmental collaborative research work
- To support staff to produce patentable research work
- To encourage exploring new and trending domains.

Grant: An amount Rs.7500/- per semester or 15000/- per annum is allotted to faculty who seek support for pursuing their research interests. The grant has to be utilized within the academic year.

Duration: The grant has to be utilized within the academic year.

Eligibility: Any faculty member of NECG who completed the probationary period can apply for the grant.

Application Process: Any staff can submit request letter to R&D cell, through their Dept., HoD. R&D Cell will scrutinize and further get it approved by Head of the Institution with in fortnight.

Submission Deadline: Staff can submit application as and when necessary or when need arises.

Conditions: Staff must mention/acknowledge the college name in the publication/patent.