Workshop on How to Improve Problem Solving Skills in Coding

The Coders club of CSE Department, NECG has conducted A National Level Workshop on "How to Improve Problem Solving Skills in Coding?"Under Spices Scheme Sponsored by AICTE in association with Indian Server Vijayawada on 02-08-2021.The Resource Person is Mr.P.Yashwanth sai Software Developer-Product and Technology, CDK Global Hyderabad. The resource person addressed the Third year students and told that Coding best practices are a set of informal rules that the software development community has learned over time which can help improve the quality of software. He has explained details about GITHUB, Hackerrank and code chef and also mentioned that everyone has to establish the culture of practicing the programs much of the time. Also discussed about How to do the competitive coding at the time of online exams conducted by various companies.

Various points on the need of coding club, exposing ourselves in the IT industry were also discussed by the resource person. 116 participants have attended the workshop

Coordinator