Workshop on Google Cloud Platform

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering of Narayana College of Engineering, Gudur conducted a Workshop on "Google Cloud Platform" under Coder's Club on 28th Oct 2021 sponsored by AICTE SPICES SCHEME in Association with 'Indian Server's. The resource person Mr.Reddappa Reddy, Assistant Systems Engineer, has been introduced by the HOD Dr.P. Venkateswara Rao. Followed by which principal Dr.V.Ravi Prasad addressed the III B.Tech CSEstudents and explained the importance of Google Cloud Platform . He explained Cloud computing has emerged as a revolutionary paradigm through which organizations can optimize their Information and Communication Technology (ICT) investments. He also discussed different cloud infrastructures and explained about cloud services managed by various providers. He expounded that Edge Computing is the optimization of Cloud, to move the compute close to the source of data to the edge. 104 students attended the workshop.

CODER'S CLUB CO-ORDINATOR