

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering Women's Forum of Narayana College of Engineering, Gudur has conducted a guest lecture on "WOMEN IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP" on 16th September 2019 by, Ms.N.Divya, Famous Fashion Designer, and Nellore. Resource person has been introduced by the HOD Dr.P. Venkateswara Rao & HOD addressed the students on significance of the Guest Lecture.

The primary objective of "WOMEN IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP" Awareness program is to compare the differences in knowledge and practices regarding Improve women's professional qualifications in engineering by organizing a development program i.e. through training on business matters, confidence and self-awareness of oneself and techniques related to the care of dependent. Students of NECG along with assessment of any perceived barriers.

Resource person conclude that specifically "female entrepreneurship and self-employment" and "Increasing activity rates and employment of women "marked by the program. Totally 35 cse final year girls students participated in this program.

