

NARAYANA ENGINEERING COLLEGE::GUDUR

A Skit on Republic Day- "Key issues affecting girls and women"

Republic day in India is celebrated every year with great pride on 26th of January to celebrate the Constitution of India as it came into force on the same day in the year 1950.

The new Indian Constitution was drafted and approved by the Indian Constituent parliament and decided to celebrate the occasion on 26th of January every year as India became a republic country.

Narayana Engineering College, GUDUR celebrated this day with festivity every year. On this day all the students assembled in the college ground at 8:00 AM. Later the Principal and other distinguished persons have arrived. The Principal unfurled the national flag. This was followed by our National Anthem 'Jana Gana Mana' sung by a team of girl students. Then the series of speeches were followed. The Principal while addressing the gathering emphasized the need for student participation in Games and sports.

II ECE Girl students have performed a skit on "key issues affecting girls and women around the world". They performed on Gender-based violence, child marriages, gender inequality, eve teasing and women trafficking etc.
